NEW YORK. June 11.—The fury of the electrical storm that swept New York late today destroying property and life broke suddenly over a little amusement park at Clasons Point, the Bronx lashed into a Ferris wheel crowded with young people, crushed it to the ground and passed on, leaving six dead and more than forty infured.

Shrieks of mirth broke from the steel cars of the wheel as it carried lis cargo of youth high we into the breezes. Then the storm and maddened cries of fear and agony as the upper half broke away and was catapulted by the winds into the hallow waters of Long Island sound. The lower half buckled and fell a twisted mass of steel, wooden girders and human bodies.

Cleveland American Magnate Laid to Rest by Notables of the Nation

MARSHALLTOWN, Jown, June 11—On a cool slope of Riverside cemetery, under a bright June sky the body of Junes C. Dunn "square shooler of baseball" and beloved owner of the Cleveland American league baseball club, was laid to rest at 2 p. m. today while notables who e names are known through the entire country stood at the grave and paid a last tribute to their friend and leader.

Floral offerings from all parts of the country attested to the esteem in which the Marshalltown man was held.
